

Application form for the Hornby Trust – ELT Journal Mentoring Scheme

Please read the Call for Proposals document before you begin (see here). Feel free to contact Dario Banegas (the lead mentor) if you'd like to discuss a possible proposal informally before completion:

(dario.banegas@ed.ac.uk)

This application form will need to be completed and submitted by 28th October 2024

Personal details

Name:

Email address:

Current position:

Country of residence:

Year of your Hornby scholarship (e.g. 2016/17):

If you are planning to work with a co-author or co-authors, you will need to provide details about them further below.

Your proposal

Working title for your proposal:

A short simple title is fine for now.

Focus / Content of your intended article (maximum 250 words):

What are you intending to write about in your article? What are your research questions (if any)?

Please provide as much information as you can to help the selection panel to make an informed decision. This may include a brief outline of your piece if you have one in mind.

Justification:

Why have you chosen this focus? Why do you think it will be of interest to others / How might it benefit others?

Hornby Trust – Journal Mentoring Scheme | Application Form 2

Relevant data:

E.g. interviews, lesson observation, diary study, document analysis, or combination, etc.

Please indicate whether you already have data that you can report on, and if so what kind of data / how much? If not, indicate what kind(s) of data you think you should collect, and provide as much information as you can about how / when you can do so.

Potential challenges you may face:

E.g. time if you're busy, permission to conduct the study, cooperation, literature access, etc.

Areas in which you feel mentoring would be useful:

Are there any ethical considerations you will need to take account of when preparing your article?

Other relevant information

Are you planning to work alone on this or with a co-author?

Work alone

Work with another Hornby scholar

Work with a non-Hornby co-author

Please provide details of any co-author (not required if you are planning to work alone):

Co-author name:

Email address:

Current position:

Country of residence:

Were they also a Hornby scholar? If so, what year?

If you hope to submit your paper to a journal other than ELT Journal or System, please provide the name of the journal and a link to its website here. Briefly explain why you have chosen this journal.

Hornby Trust – ELT Journal Mentoring Scheme | Application Form 3

Any further information you would like to share / questions you would like answered?:

Please email this form to dario.banegas@ed.ac.uk before October 28th 2024.